

Even the King Has to Eat: Storytelling Through Food Photography

Henry Hargreaves

IDEA STARTERS FOR YOUR CLASS PROJECT:

- Songs
 - “Gin and Juice” by Snoop Dogg
 - “Savoy Truffle” by the Beatles
 - “Scenes from an Italian Restaurant” by Billy Joel
 - “Red Beans And Rice” by Booker T. & The MG’s
 - “Tea House in Chinatown” by the Four Tops
 - “Do Fries Go With That Shake?” by George Clinton

- Books
 - Tea party from Alice in Wonderland
 - Bob Cratchit’s Christmas dinner in A Christmas Carol
 - Turkish Delight from The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

- Social Commentary
 - Passover vs. Christmas dinner
 - Super-sized portions
 - The ban of sugary drinks

- Personal Stories
 - What your parents ate and drank at their wedding
 - Hospital food after you got your tonsils removed

- Eating Rituals of Famous People
 - i.e. “Tesla [Edison’s intern] ate alone every night at the Palm Room Waldorf Astoria at precisely 8pm. He called his order in early, and had it served by the Maître D’ with 18 napkins. He would re-polish everything and calculate the cubic contents of each dish before eating. He could never enjoy his food without this ritual.”